Non-Discrimination Notice

The Wyoming Department of Health (WDH) complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability in its programs and services.

WDH provides appropriate communication aids and services when necessary for individuals with disabilities to be able to communicate effectively with us and to ensure meaningful access to our programs and services. These aids and services include qualified sign-language interpreters and written information in other forms, such as large print, audio, or accessible electronic formats.

The WDH provides language services when necessary for individuals with limited English proficiency to be able to communicate effectively with us and to ensure meaningful access to our programs and services.

If you need communication or language aids or services, you may call the WDH Civil Rights Coordinator by telephone at 307-777-7656 or 1-866-571-0944. You may also access or access Wyoming's Telecommunications Device for the Deaf (TDD/TTY) by dialing 7-1-1 or 1-800-877-9965.

You have the right to file a grievance with the WDH about potential discrimination or failure to provide communication or language aids or services. You can file a grievance with the WDH using any of the methods below:
