

HEW Talks

Health Equity Workshop

Wednesday, December 13

National Standards for Culturally and Linguistically Appropriate Services in Health (CLAS Standards)

Deborah Ward-White, Executive Director of Family Agency Collaborative (FAC) and Co-founder/ Director of Colorado Cultural Consortium.

December 13, 2017

Light lunch: 11:15 am

HEW Talks: 11:30 am to 12:30 pm

Century Link Building,

Basement Conference Room

Register for course: WYTrain Course ID 1074001

Watch live online: <https://zoom.us/meeting/>

About the Speaker

Deborah Ward- White is the Executive Director of Family Agency Collaborative (FAC) and Co-founder/ Director of Colorado Cultural Consortium. The Consortium is coalition/consortium of providers, advocates, promotoras (community health worker) and policymakers focused on establishing equity in mental health and physical health services/supports for communities of color. FAC is a family organization providing Family Advocacy and Service Coordination through the High Fidelity Wrap-Around Process. Ms. Ward-White is also the Lead Technical Assistance Consultant for the Colorado Trauma Informed System of Care Culturally Responsive Component and Family Advocacy Specialist, is Co-Chair of The Under 26 Transitions Age Youth Work Group and is an active participant in the Colorado Minority Youth Equality.

HEW Talks are short, informative presentations organized to educate on health equity topics affecting people in the State of Wyoming.

HEW Talks are organized by the Health Equity Workgroup, Office of Health Equity. For more information contact Lillian Zuniga, lillian.zuniga@wyo.gov.