Provider Substance Use Disorder Program Policy and Procedure Manual Guidance

The Wyoming Rules and Regulations for Substance Abuse Standards specify several areas be established in written policy and/or procedure. This is an outline of the areas, per rule and regulation, which are the minimum required to be included in your program’s policy and procedure document.

It is permissible to include language and information from rule and regulation in your policy and procedure document as long as it is written as applicable to the program being considered for state certification.

Please combine all policy and procedure documents together into one electronic document, dated with the latest revision date.

All levels of care programs/providers must include these standards in policy and procedure:

- Governing Board Protocols (e.g., governing authority or board, or sole legal owner/responsible authority) – Chapter 2, Section 2 (b)
- Client Rights – Chapter 2, Section 2 (c)
- Emergency Procedure Requirements – Chapter 2, Section 2 (d)
- Tobacco Free Protocols – Chapter 2, Section 2 (e)
- Financial Protocols, All Certified Programs – Chapter 2, Section 6 (a – c)
- Human Resource Management – Chapter 2, Section 7 (b, c, d, e, f)
- Client Confidentiality and Consents – Chapter 4, Section 2 (a – g)
