

Leftovers Policy

Eligible participants may take home their uneaten food which becomes leftovers in take-out containers. Some meal sites may require eligible participants to bring in their own containers to store the leftovers. Eligible participants that choose to take their leftovers home shall be advised that they are taking the leftovers at their own risk.

Please mark your leftovers with the following information:

- Date the meal was served;
- A use-by date three days from the date of service; and
- The words “refrigerate immediately or consume within 2 hours”.

Labels providing the above information may be available at the discretion of the meal site.
