Attention Providers: The Division is preparing for on-site visits. We will be contacting you individually to set up times. These on-site visits will take place in spring, summer, and fall.

Upcoming Trainings:

The 3rd Annual Idaho Integrated Behavioral Health Network Conference Boise Centre Boise, Idaho April 1-4, 2020

The Idaho Integrated Behavioral Health Network (IIBHN) would like to invite you to attend our 2020 conference. The IIBHN Conference is focused on systems transformation to increase access and improve the quality of behavioral health services in Idaho. IIBHN is the vehicle to drive change and the conference is the tool to develop professional learning collaborative to enhance and support the growth of Integrated Behavioral Health (IBH) programs through peer to peer support, advancing clinical education, facilitating statewide training opportunities and developing a cadre of technical experts for sustainability.

Our second year we hosted over 200 professionals from Idaho and neighboring states. Attendees represented primary care, psychiatrists, psychologists, private and public payers, healthcare administration, behavioral health providers, and quality improvement organizations. We anticipate that our 2020 conference will include at least 250 attendees from across the state and Pacific Northwest Region.

This year's cadre of speakers includes national and international experts on integrated behavioral health (IBH) including Dr. Morgan Sammons, Andrew Philip, PhD., Dr. Patricia Robinson, Dr. Kirk Strosahl, Dr. Jeff Reiter, Dr. Roger Kessler, Dr. Kent Corso, and Dr. Lesley Manson, as well as local experts from our own communities.
