Birth Certificates:

1. Only a parent named on the record, legal guardian (if the child is under 18 and with copy of court order proving guardianship), or the named individual (if 18 or older) may correct the birth certificate.
2. The proof must match the facts. For example, if you want the name to say Mary Ann Doe, the proof must show the name as Mary Ann Doe.
3. Documentary proof must be five or more years old or established within five years of birth.

Acceptable Evidence used to create an Affidavit of Correction

- Hospital Record – A photocopy of the hospital medical record of birth. The person in charge of Medical Records must certify that it is correct.
- Baptismal, Cradle Roll or other Church Record – A certificate issued at the time of the baptism, confirmation, or blessing. You must send the original record.
- Physician’s Record – A photocopy of the record of the attending physician at birth may be used. This must be a photocopy of the actual record established at the time of birth, not a computer printout. The doctor must sign the record certifying that it is correct.
- School Records – A photocopy of the school record may be used if it shows all required information. An elementary school enrollment record is preferred. The copy must be certified, signed, and dated by the person in charge of the official school records.
- Social Security Administration Record – This report issued by the Social Security Administration may be used. This office is able to obtain the report if provided with the registrant’s social security number and a signed consent form from the registrant.
- Marriage Record or Application – A certified copy of the marriage license application or certificate may be accepted if it gives the information which is required. The application or certificate is filed in the county where the license was obtained. If registrant was married in Wyoming, please provide the names and dates.

Court Ordered Changes

A certified copy of the Court Order must be provided to our office. We must keep this document for our files.
