

Wyoming Cancer Program's

RADON POSTER CONTEST

Submission deadline
11/15/21

Students submit artwork designed to raise awareness about radon and encourage radon testing in every home.

Open to students grades 3-9

The top winners will receive a prize, be submitted to the National Radon Poster Contest, and have their designs used to raise awareness about the importance of testing homes for radon. The classroom of the winning students will also receive a prize.
