

2021 Wyoming EMS Award Cover Sheet

Your Contact Information

Name
Street Address
City ST ZIP Code
Home Phone
Work Phone
E-Mail Address

Awardee Information

Name
Street Address
City ST ZIP Code
Home Phone
Work Phone
E-Mail Address
EMS Agency (if applicable)

Award

(Name of the Award, e.g. Lifetime Achievement Award)

Brief Reason Why This Person Should Receive the Award

--

Please submit the completed award entry form and supporting documents via email to jennifer.chen-bixby@wyo.gov no later than January 31, 2022, 5:00 p.m..
Entries submitted after the deadline will not be accepted.

Wyoming EMS Call for Entries 2021 Lifetime Achievement Award

The Wyoming Office of Emergency Medical Services presents this award to honor an EMS partner in recognition of unselfish devotion and outstanding contributions to Wyoming's Emergency Medical Service community.

Eligibility for the Award

Any member of the Wyoming EMS community is eligible for the Lifetime Achievement Award.

Basis for the Award

The award is presented to a member in recognition of commitment and outstanding contributions to the overall emergency medical services in Wyoming. All nominations must contain written justification for the award. EMS members may nominate any person deserving of the award regardless of the geographical location within Wyoming of the nominee or the nominator.

Please Note: Self-nominations are not accepted.

Suggested Content of Award Entry

- A nomination letter giving an overview of qualifications.
- Narrative of accomplishments/projects/activities that meet the judging criteria below.

Format for Award Entry

One page letter and award cover sheet.

How Award Entries Are Reviewed

Lifetime Achievement Award entries will be reviewed through an unbiased selection process by the Wyoming Office of Emergency Medical Services.

- Local initiatives to improve EMS
- Statewide initiatives to improve EMS
- Service on EMS related committees, boards, councils, etc.
- Any other activity that demonstrates a commitment to developing and improving EMS throughout the State

The committee will review entries to determine how closely the above-referenced criteria are explained in a thoughtful yet concise manner.

Only written documentation will be reviewed. (No video, photos, websites, or other media will be accepted.)

Please submit the completed award entry form and supporting documents via email to jennifer.chen-bixby@wyo.gov no later than January 31, 2022, 5:00 p.m.

Entries submitted after the deadline will not be accepted.

Wyoming EMS Call for Entries

2021 EMS Provider of the Year Award

The Wyoming Office of Emergency Medical Services presents this award annually to honor an EMS provider in recognition of unselfish devotion and outstanding contributions to Wyoming's Emergency Medical Service community.

Eligibility for the Award

Any Wyoming licensed EMR, EMT, Advanced EMT, Intermediate EMT, or Paramedic is eligible for the Pete Vase EMS Provider of the Year Award.

Basis for the Award

The award is presented to a member in recognition of commitment and outstanding contributions to emergency medical services during the past year. All nominations must contain written justification for the award. EMS members may nominate a local provider deserving of the award regardless of the geographical location within Wyoming of the nominee or the nominator.

Please Note: Self-nominations are not accepted.

Suggested Content of Award Entry

- A nomination letter giving an overview of qualifications.
- Narrative of accomplishments/projects/activities that meet the criteria below.

Format for Award Entry

One page letter and award cover sheet.

How Award Entries Are Reviewed

The Pete Vase EMS Provider of the Year Award entries will be reviewed through an unbiased selection process by the Wyoming Office of Emergency Medical Services.

- Outstanding service to their local EMS
- Service to Wyoming EMS in general
- Any other activity that demonstrates a commitment to improving EMS throughout the year

The committee will review entries to determine how closely the above-referenced criteria are explained in a thoughtful yet concise manner.

Only written documentation will be reviewed. (No video, photos, websites, or other media will be accepted.)

Please submit the completed award entry form and supporting documents via email to jennifer.chen-bixby@wyo.gov no later than January 31, 2022, 5:00 p.m.

Entries submitted after the deadline will not be accepted.

Wyoming EMS Call for Entries

2021 EMS Physician Medical Director of the Year Award

The EMS Physician Medical Director is a cornerstone of successful EMS systems throughout Wyoming. They provide training, operational oversight, mentorship, ensure quality clinical care and advocate on behalf of their systems.

Eligibility for the Award

- The awardee must be a Wyoming licensed physician in good standing with the Wyoming Board of Medicine and identified as an EMS Physician Medical Director
- It must be demonstrated that the awardee is actively involved in their local service in conducting quality improvement, the development of protocols and standing orders, education and training (both initial and continuing) and system wide development.

Basis for the Award

Established in 1983, the EMS Physician Medical Director of the Year is given in recognition of a Wyoming physician that has provided outstanding leadership and guidance to their local Emergency Medical Service. The award recognizes the totality of the physician's contribution to their local service, community and to EMS across Wyoming.

Please Note: Self-nominations are not accepted.

Suggested Content of Award Entry

- A nomination letter giving an overview of qualifications.
- Narrative of accomplishments/projects/activities that meet the criteria below.

Format for Award Entry

One page letter and award cover sheet.

How Award Entries Are Reviewed

EMS Physician Medical Director of the Year Award entries will be reviewed through an unbiased selection process by the Wyoming Office of Emergency Medical Services.

- Local initiatives to improve EMS
- Statewide or regional initiatives to improve EMS
- Service on EMS related committees, boards, councils, etc.
- Involvement in EMS related legislative activities
- Any other activity that demonstrates a commitment to developing and improving EMS throughout the State

The committee will review entries to determine how closely the above-referenced suggested criteria are explained in a thoughtful yet concise manner.

Only written documentation will be reviewed. (No video, photos, websites, or other media will be accepted.)

Please submit the completed award entry form and supporting documents via email to jennifer.chen-bixby@wyo.gov no later than January 31, 2022, 5:00 p.m.

Entries submitted after the deadline will not be accepted.

Wyoming EMS Call for Entries 2021 Bystander Award

The Wyoming Office of Emergency Medical Services presents this award to honor a lay person who helped or attempted to save a life in Wyoming.

Eligibility for the Award

Any layperson who attempted to save a life by their quick and decisive actions.

Basis for the Award

The award is presented to a non-medical person in recognition of unselfish action to help save a life during the past year. All nominations must contain written justification for the award.

Please Note: Self-nominations are not accepted.

Suggested Content of Award Entry

- A nomination letter giving an overview of the lifesaving act.
- Newspaper clippings, articles, photos or video which identifies or shows the lifesaving act.

Format for Award Entry

One page letter and award cover sheet.

How Award Entries Are Reviewed

Bystander Award entries will be reviewed through an unbiased selection process by the Wyoming Office of Emergency Medical Services.

Please submit the completed award entry form and supporting documents via email to jennifer.chen-bixby@wyo.gov no later than January 31, 2022, 5:00 p.m.

Entries submitted after the deadline will not be accepted.

Wyoming EMS Call for Entries

2021 EMS Coordinator of the Year Award

The Wyoming Office of Emergency Medical Services presents this award annually to honor an EMS Coordinator in recognition of unselfish devotion and outstanding contributions to Wyoming's Emergency Medical Service community.

Eligibility for the Award

Any Wyoming approved EMS Coordinator is eligible for the EMS Coordinator of the Year Award.

Basis for the Award

The award is presented to a member in recognition of commitment and outstanding contributions to emergency medical services education during the past year. All nominations must contain written justification for the award. EMS members may nominate a coordinator deserving of the award regardless of the geographical location within Wyoming of the nominee or the nominator.

Please Note: Self-nominations are not accepted.

Suggested Content of Award Entry

- A nomination letter giving an overview of qualifications.
- Narrative of accomplishments/projects/activities that meet the criteria below.

Format for Award Entry

One page letter and award cover sheet.

How Award Entries Are Reviewed

The EMS Coordinator of the Year Award entries will be reviewed through an unbiased selection process by the Wyoming Office of Emergency Medical Services.

- Evidence showing how students were inspired to learn.
- Demonstrated knowledge of EMS and instructional methods.
- Demonstrated outstanding leadership.
- Service to Wyoming EMS in general.
- Any other activity that demonstrates a commitment to improving EMS education.

The committee will review entries to determine how closely the above-referenced criteria are explained in a thoughtful yet concise manner.

Only written documentation will be reviewed. (No video, photos, websites, or other media will be accepted.)

Please submit the completed award entry form and supporting documents via email to jennifer.chen-bixby@wyo.gov no later than January 31, 2022, 5:00 p.m.

Entries submitted after the deadline will not be accepted.

Wyoming EMS Call for Entries

2021 Wyoming EMS Rising Star Award

The Wyoming Office of Emergency Medical Services presents this award to honor a newer EMS provider in recognition of their contributions to Wyoming's Emergency Medical Service community.

Eligibility for the Award

Any Wyoming EMS provider licensed less than five (5) years is eligible for the EMS Rising Star Award.

Basis for the Award

The award is presented to a newer EMS provider in recognition of contributions to emergency medical services during the past year. The nominee has demonstrated outstanding potential as an EMS leader. All nominations must contain written justification for the award. EMS members may nominate a local provider deserving of the award regardless of the geographical location within Wyoming of the nominee or the nominator.

Please Note: Self-nominations are not accepted.

Suggested Content of Award Entry

- A nomination letter giving an overview of the provider contribution to Wyoming EMS.
- Narrative of accomplishments/projects/activities that meet the criteria below.

Format for Award Entry

One page letter and award cover sheet.

How Award Entries Are Reviewed

EMS Rising Star Award entries will be reviewed through an unbiased selection process by the Wyoming Office of Emergency Medical Services.

- Service to their local EMS
- Service to Wyoming EMS in general
- Demonstrated leadership potential
- Any other activity that demonstrates a commitment to improving EMS throughout the year

The committee will review entries to determine how closely the above-referenced criteria are explained in a thoughtful yet concise manner.

Only written documentation will be reviewed. (No video, photos, websites, or other media will be accepted.)

Please submit the completed award entry form and supporting documents via email to jennifer.chen-bixby@wyo.gov no later than January 31, 2022, 5:00 p.m.

Entries submitted after the deadline will not be accepted.

Wyoming EMS Call for Entries 2021 Achievement Award

The Wyoming Office of Emergency Medical Services presents this award annually to honor an EMS provider or provider agency in recognition of commitment and outstanding contributions to Wyoming's Emergency Medical Service community.

Eligibility for the Award

Any Wyoming EMS licensed provider or provider agency is eligible for the Achievement Award.

Basis for the Award

The award is presented to an EMS member or agency in recognition of commitment and contributions to emergency medical services during the past year. The level of contribution is significant, but may not meet the high standards of the Medic of the Year award. All nominations must contain written justification for the award. EMS members may nominate a local provider or agency deserving of the award regardless of the geographical location within Wyoming of the nominee or the nominator.

Please Note: Self-nominations are not accepted.

Suggested Content of Award Entry

- A nomination letter giving an overview of the provider or agency's contribution to Wyoming EMS.
- Narrative of accomplishments/projects/activities that meet the criteria below.

Format for Award Entry

One page letter and award cover sheet.

How Award Entries Are Reviewed

Achievement Award entries will be reviewed through an unbiased selection process by the Wyoming Office of Emergency Medical Services.

- Service to their local EMS
- Service to Wyoming EMS in general
- Any other activity that demonstrates a commitment to improving EMS throughout the year

The committee will review entries to determine how closely the above-referenced criteria are explained in a thoughtful yet concise manner.

Only written documentation will be reviewed. (No video, photos, websites, or other media will be accepted.)

Please submit the completed award entry form and supporting documents via email to jennifer.chen-bixby@wyo.gov no later than January 31, 2022, 5:00 p.m.

Entries submitted after the deadline will not be accepted.