

Wyoming Developmental Disabilities Advisory Council Membership Application

Thank you for your interest in becoming part of the Developmental Disabilities Advisory Council!

The Developmental Disabilities Advisory Council (DDAC) exists by authority of W.S. 9-2-107(a) for the purpose of advising the Wyoming Department of Health, Home and Community-Based Services Section (Section) staff on formulating and amending rules, policies, and procedure relating to Section programs and activities. The purpose of DDAC is to assist and advise the Section in implementing a statewide service delivery system for persons who are identified as having developmental and intellectual disabilities, and acquired brain injuries (ABI).

DDAC is comprised of the following members, each of whom holds the position for three years:

- Two members of the Council shall be legally authorized representatives of a person with developmental disabilities, intellectual disabilities, or an ABI.
- One member of the Council shall be a self-advocate.
- Two members of the Council shall be Wyoming public or private providers of developmental disability, intellectual disability, or acquired brain injury services.
- One member of the Council shall be a case manager providing services for a person with a developmental disability, intellectual disability, or an acquired brain injury.
- One member of the Council shall represent the Department of Education, Division of Special Education Programs.
- One member of the Council shall represent the Department of Workforce Services, Division of Vocational Rehabilitation.
- One member of the Council shall represent the Governor's Council on Developmental Disabilities (WGCD).
- One member of the Council shall represent Protection & Advocacy System, Inc.
- One member of the Council shall represent the Wyoming Institute for Disabilities (WIND).
- One member of the Council shall be the Executive Director of the Wyoming Community Service Providers (WCSP).

DDAC meets four times per year. Attendance by conference call is permitted. DDAC members are appointed by the Director of the Wyoming Department of Health and serve without compensation. You may find a copy of DDAC's current by-laws on the Section's website at: <https://health.wyo.gov/healthcarefin/hcbs/dd-advisory-council/>.
