Service Descripti	on – Activities to be perfo	rmed:

Section Two – Employee Tasks

Document the specific tasks your employee will perform for you with the corresponding activity. This should include your preferences for how activities are completed and may also be used to develop a job description. For example, if the activity is meal preparation, the specific tasks might be: Prepare dinners once each week that can be frozen and reheated in the microwave.

My employee(s) will conduct the tasks below for each activity where I have a need identified in my service plan:

Activity	Specific tasks
Eating
Bathing

Dressing
Grooming
Toileting

Functional Mobility
Light House Keeping
Shopping

Meal Preparation

Section Three - Recruiting and Hiring

Put a checkmark next to each way you plan to recruit your employee.

	Social media sites	Career service departments
	Employment offices	Disability/healthcare related classes
	Grocery store	Social service agencies
	Laundromats	Community newspaper
	Churches	Free weekly advertising guides
	Community colleges	Center for Independent Living
	Job service centers	FMS attendant directory

Employee Qualifications

You can hire any person over the age of 18, including a relative, as long as he/she is eligible to work in the United States and meets the program's standards for criminal history/background investigations. However, you cannot hire a legally responsible person. In limited circumstances, you can hire your spouse. To hire your spouse, the following circumstances must exist:

- Your spouse cannot be your legal guardian;
- Your spouse cannot be authorized to make financial decisions on your behalf; and
- Your spouse must meet established provider qualifications.

Additionally, you must demonstrate that:

- You are unable to employ another individual who is able and willing to meet your needs, or
- The individual's availability to care for you would impact your spouse's ability to work a full-time job outside of providing care to you; and
- The number of units provided do not exceed your assessed level of service and your need does not exceed the definition and scope of services as outlined for Personal Support Services; and
- The services provided by your spouse would not exceed the range of activities that they would ordinarily perform in the household on your behalf.

You can also choose to require additional qualifications designed to meet your specific needs. For example, you may require that employees have two years of experience providing direct care. Similarly, you may choose to exclude applicants for crimes not included in the Division's list of barrier crimes.

Additional Qualifications (if any):

Training Requirements
All employees you hire must successfully complete the Division's training curriculum. This training is the minimum training employees must complete, and you have the ability to require additional training specific to your needs.
Additional Training Requirements (if any):

Section Four - Staffing Plan

Use the employee task information and the participant direction budget calculator to develop a weekly schedule for your employee(s). This will help you determine how many hours of support you need each day of the week and how to best schedule your employee(s) to meet your needs.

For each employee, determine which days and the number of hours he/she will work. You can then calculate daily and weekly hour totals. An employee may not work more than 40 hours per week.

Section Six - Backup Plan

Create a backup plan for a temporary disruptions in your participant-directed service (your employee is late or does not report to work). Your backup plan may include, but is not limited to:

- Seeking temporary assistance from a family member or friend
- Contacting your case manager to arrange for an alternate service or support
- Employing an on-call or alternate caregiver

A back-up plan should not include calling 911 as emergency response services are intended to provide routine care.	e not

Section Seven – Emergency Plan

Having a plan for dealing with different types of emergencies, such as medical emergencies, pandemics, hospitalizations, fires, power outages, severe weather, and other natural disasters, can help keep you safe and minimize any injury or damage. When planning, you should:

- Make a list of people to contact for each type of emergency
- Plan on how to contact family and employees if there is a power outage or natural disaster
- Make a list of medications and equipment that you need to take with you if you must evacuate your home
- Organize medical information, emergency contact information, and if applicable, your living will information and place it all together in an easy to access location
- Store extra food and water in the case of a severe weather emergency or other natural disaster
- Document procedures should you experience an emergency
- Discuss and include your employee in your emergency planning
