REQUESTS — WHO MAY HAVE COPIES: Wyoming is a closed record state, meaning vital records are considered confidential information and closed to the general public until one hundred (100) years after the date of birth or fifty (50) years after the date of marriage, divorce, or death. Generally, only those listed on the record are entitled to receive certified copies, though there are exceptions. Please refer to our website for more information on possible exceptions. Individuals entitled to received certified copies of vital records are as follows:

Birth Certificates: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Registrant (child named on record), if of legal age (18 years or older) • Either parent named on the certificate • Lawyer representing either the registrant or the parent(s) * • Legal guardian with certified copy of the guardianship papers (obtained from a Court) * • Unemancipated Minor with signed affidavit * 	Marriage / Divorce Certificates: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Either party named on the certificate • Lawyer representing either party * 	Death Certificates: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Immediate family members (parent, current spouse, child) • Lawyer representing the immediate family * • A bank, executor of the estate, insurance company, or anyone requiring a certificate to pay a policy or death benefit on the decedent * • In some cases, individuals or organizations may be authorized to obtain a certificate when determining a personal or property right *

* The applicant must demonstrate the requirement for the certificate

GENEALOGY REQUESTS: Written verifications of a record may be issued for genealogical research if the record requested is a closed record. In order to obtain a verification of a closed record, the requestor must provide evidence that the individual(s) listed on the record are deceased (provide copies of death certificates) as well as documentation showing how the requestor is related to the person listed on the record (through copies of birth and marriage records). Verifications are a redacted version of the full record and may not contain all the information available on the original.

IDENTIFICATION REQUIRED: The requestor must include a photocopy of a valid government issued picture identification that includes a permanent signature with their request. IDs less than 60 days expired are still acceptable. The validity of the identification submitted is determined by Vital Statistics Services. A notarized signature on the front of this form may take the place of an ID. Please refer to our website for more information on possible exceptions.

Accepted Government Issued IDs:
