NOTICE OF ALTERNATIVES, RIGHTS, AND RESPONSIBILITIES

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF THE AFFIDAVIT ACKNOWLEDGING PATERNITY?

This form is used to legally establish who the father of a child is when the mother and father are not married to each other. Paternity means legal fatherhood. The laws about this affidavit are found in the Wyoming Parentage Act, W.S. 14-2-401, et. seq.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN IF THE AFFIDAVIT IS SIGNED AND FILED WITH VITAL RECORDS SERVICES?

This affidavit is a legal document. It gives the father parental rights such as the right to seek child custody or visitation through a court action and to be consulted about an adoption of the child. It means that either parent may be court ordered to pay child support or provide medical support for the child. Signing this form allows the child's birth certificate to have the father's name on it.

Before you complete this form, you must receive oral notice of the above information. This notice may be obtained over the telephone by calling (888) 570-9906. This is a toll-free call within the State of Wyoming.

Signing this form is voluntary. A correctly completed affidavit has the same effect as a court order establishing paternity. If you do not understand the legal consequences of signing this form, you may want to consult an attorney. The mother and alleged father should not sign this form unless they are sure that the alleged father is the biological father of this child.

WHAT IF YOU CHANGE YOUR MIND AFTER SIGNING?

If either person changes their mind after signing an Affidavit Acknowledging Paternity, please see W.S. 14-2-607 for guidance on the process, as you may wish to consult a private attorney.

WHAT IF I DON'T SIGN THE AFFIDAVIT?

Either the mother or the alleged father will still have the right to bring a court action to determine paternity of the child. Either party can request genetic (DNA) testing by contacting a local child support office and opening a case or by hiring a private attorney. After the genetic test results are received, if they show that the alleged father is the biological father, this affidavit may be signed. You can find the location of the nearest child support office by calling (307) 777-6948.

FILING WITH VITAL RECORDS SERVICES

- This affidavit takes effect when filed with Vital Records Services.
- If the alleged father has had a genetic test and that test has not shown that he is the biological father, this affidavit cannot be used to establish parentage.
- If the mother was married to someone other than the biological father of this child at any time within 300 days prior to this birth, an affidavit denying paternity signed by her present or former husband must also be filed, unless a court has determined that he is not the natural father. In that case a certified copy of the court order must accompany this affidavit.
- If the child is eighteen years old or over, Part II of this affidavit giving the adult child's consent must also be filed.
